

AZIENDA AGRICOLA VADIAPERTI

Coda di Volpe

Since the end of the nineteenth century, the Troisi family has championed the wines of Irpina, a historic vine-growing area in northern Campania. This ancient region is home to the white grape Fiano, a variety prized in Roman times. The family's focus on Campania's rich history of grapes is exceptional; winemaker Raffaele Troisi's father Antonio was one of the first growers to bottle a single-variety Fiano wine, while Raffaele himself was the first to bottle a single-variety Coda di Volpe. Vadiaperti's high-altitude vineyards and pure volcanic soils combine for southern Italian white wines of impeccable finesse, freshness and character.

WINERY: Azienda Agricola Vadiaperti

WINEMAKER: Raffaele Troisi

ESTABLISHED: 1984

REGION: ITALIA • Campania • Montefredane

APPELLATION: Irpina DOC

BLEND: 100% Coda di Volpe

VINEYARDS: Estate vineyards sit at 2,100 feet above sea level near the commune of Pietradefusi, some of the highest, and coolest, Coda di Volpe vineyards in the region. Soils mix volcanic "tufo," mineral-rich and well-draining, with limestone subsoils.

AGE OF VINES: 25-50 years

WINEMAKING: Hand-harvested. Full-cluster press; fermented on indigenous yeasts in temperature-controlled tanks. Aged in tank on fine lees.

TASTING IMPRESSIONS: Aromas of honey, wet stone and herbs. Lively and juicy, with a resinous, honeyed finish.

PAIRING SUGGESTIONS: Fresh oysters or other shellfish; ricotta-filled ravioli

NOTES: Coda di Volpe in Italian means 'tail of the fox.' Grape bunches resemble the thick, bushy tail of a fox.
