

AZIENDA AGRICOLA ROBERTO VOERZIO

Langhe Nebbiolo 'Disanfrancesco'

Of the living winemaking legends in Piedmont, there are few quite like Roberto Voerzio. His fame is international, his philosophy uncompromising, and his Barolo wines seemingly eternal. Nebbiolo here is deep and soulful, wonderfully juicy yet utterly refined, with flavors that tend toward riper, blacker fruits. Voerzio wines should never be rushed, however, as they require at least five years in bottle before revealing their true nature. And there is no question that this true nature—suave, concentrated, textured—places Azienda Agricola Roberto Voerzio solidly in the ranks of Italy's finest winemaking estates.

WINERY: Azienda Agricola Roberto Voerzio

WINEMAKER: Roberto Voerzio

ESTABLISHED: 1986

REGION: ITALY • Piedmont • La Morra

APPELLATION: Langhe Nebbiolo DOC

BLEND: 100% Nebbiolo

VINEYARDS: Estate vines located in La Morra, facing southeast. Each older vine is pruned carefully, to ensure very low yields.

AGE OF VINES: 35 years, on average

WINEMAKING: Hand-harvested in September. Fermented on indigenous yeasts in stainless steel tanks. Aged 12 months in tonneaux (30% new) then an additional eight months in 25HL "botti" and tank. Unfined and unfiltered.

TASTING IMPRESSIONS: Aromas of black cherries, dried wildflowers, mint, white pepper. Wonderfully aromatic and pure.

PAIRING SUGGESTIONS: Grilled chicken; salumi with truffles; pasta with game sauce
