L'Erta di Radda

TUSCANY

Winemaker Diego Finocchi is a one-man winery, caring for 12 acres of “mountain” Sangiovese amid the steeply graded hills and valleys of Radda in Chianti, the heart of the Chianti Classico zone. A trained enologist and native son who established his estate in 2006, Diego seeks to “make wines that are as faithful as possible” to the true character of Radda. That essence—stony and pure, brimming with bright fruit and lively acid, tailor-made for fine cuisine—is what you’ll find in each bottle of Diego’s organically raised wines. Inspired by Radda’s serious altitude, Finocchi named his estate “L’Erta di Radda,” or the “steep slopes of Radda.”

Domaine Christophe Billon

NORTHERN RHÔNE VALLEY

Amid the densely planted slopes and marquee names of Côte Rôtie in the northern Rhône, you’d think it impossible for a micro-producer to make a mark—but you’d be wrong. Winemaker Christophe Billon for years juggled his work at Guigal with his own project, crafting elegant, expressive Côte Rôtie wines from his hillside home in Ampuis. His are pure, vibrant Syrah wines, thrillingly deep and savory, effortlessly beautiful.

Domaine JMB Sorrel

NORTHERN RHÔNE VALLEY

Jean-Michel Sorrel is the third generation of his family to tend vines and make wine from the historic hill of Hermitage in the northern Rhône. Jean-Michel is a traditionalist at heart, caring for his small parcels on these steep, granite slopes by hand or by horse. With just under two acres of land in three separate plots, Jean-Michel’s wines are a rare treasure, as he produces less than 3,000 bottles per vintage.

CHÂTEAU PONTÊTE-BELLEGRIVE

In the 19th century, the wines of Graves de Vayres were often compared qualitatively to those of Pomerol. In 2004, the de la Rivière family purchased this 16th-century garrison and chateau and renovated the property's ancient stone cellars. Practicing sustainable farming.

BURGUNDY – CHABLISDOMAINE DE CHANTEMERLE (A. & F. BOUDIN)

Chablis from winemaker Francis Boudin is naturally made and aged only in tank. In keeping with the family's natural philosophy, the Boudins did not replant their Chardonnay vines with high-yielding clones, as was the fad in the 1970s. Practicing sustainable farming.

DOMAINE OLIVIER MORIN

The village of Chitry (she-TREE), 20 miles southwest of Chablis proper, has exactly the same terroir as does its more famous neighbor. Yet with a homegrown talent such as Olivier Morin, Chitry is making waves with a focus on Chardonnay and Pinot Noir wines that offer exemplary quality and value. Practicing organic.

DOMAINE GUY ROBIN ET FILS

Because winemaker Marie-Ange Robin's father, Guy, refused to tear up vines for high-yielding clones as was the practice decades ago in Chablis, some 80 percent of the estate's vines—in five grand cru and four premier cru vineyards—are very old vines.

The wines of winemaker Philippe Gavignet surprisingly remain an insider's secret in Burgundy, as the estate's vineyard holdings are a stunning collection of Nuits' noble, older-vine terroirs. Philippe's father and grandfather planted much of these vines in the late 1920s and 1950s.

Anne Gros simply is one of the top winemakers in Burgundy today, with silky, precise wines that inspire a cult-like following. There have been Gros family members in Vosne-Romanée since the 1830s. Anne took over her father's winery (Domaine François Gros) in the late 1980s.

MAISON FRÉDÉRIC MAGNIEN

Frédéric Magnien is a fifth-generation winemaker from Morey-Saint-Denis. As a négociant, he works closely with growers throughout the season, selecting older-vine parcels cared for to his exacting standards. Magnien now ages many of his wines in clay jars and amphorae, a decision he believes allows for a purer, clearer expression of fruit and vineyard terroir. Magnien was named to Wine & Spirits Magazine's Top 100 Winery list in 2020. Vincent Boyer is a hands-in-the soil grower in an appellation where many wineries just coast on Meursault's reputation. While most winemakers blend, Vincent bottles separately his many exceptional villages-level vineyards.
