We reserve the right to correct all errors in pricing or in fact. Prices valid as of September 2025.

Dear Friends,

Like many of you, we've been glued to the news for the past few months, as the Trump administration has kept our industry on edge with its tariffs brinkmanship. As of mid-August the current tariff rate between the European Union and the United States is 15%, an added cost that is borne directly by importers like us.

North Berkeley has worked tirelessly since tariffs were first announced in April to secure discounts from our many partners in France and Italy (as well as lowering our own margins) to alleviate the effects of tariffs on prices. These discounts will help to directly lower the tariff amount that will be passed on as a surcharge.

Know that as a rule, we are not rolling the tariff amount into the cost of goods (COG) but instead passing on ONLY the tariff amount as a surcharge on affected wines, regardless of price level. In keeping the tariff separate, we believe this keeps pricing transparent and also offers us greater flexibility, if or when current rules on tariffs change. (Which, as we've seen, they certainly will.)

For our California customers, the tariff surcharge (listed here in this catalog as dollars per case) will be applied either to the frontline price or after any discounts have been applied.

We are not profiting or benefiting from any markup in this current tariff regime. Our ultimate goal is to ensure prices remain as low and reasonable as possible, and to keep the effects of the tariffs to an absolute minimum for our loyal and long-term clients.

We are also active members of the US Wine Trade Alliance and are following their work closely, as well as doing our best to stay on top of the rapidly changing news out of both the United States and Europe.

On behalf of the whole team at North Berkeley Imports, which now includes our new offices in Tribeca covering the New York and New Jersey markets, I want to thank you for your trust amid these tumultuous times.

It has not been easy to plan for the future, when the rules of the game seem to change almost daily. We aim always to be a partner you can trust, with products you love, and pricing structures that are as transparent and fair as possible.

I personally remain positive and know that together we'll get through these challenges with success, just as we have in the past.

Cheers,

Domaine de la Pierre Gravée

Vouvray | France

Richly verdant vines stretch across a windswept plateau; underneath, the pale limestone soils of Vouvray provide the perfect terroir for some of the greatest white wines in the world. Deeper still, cool cellars carved by hand centuries ago house barrels of wine as they sleep through a second winter, to reveal grand Chenin Blanc in all its stone-fruited glory. The “pierre gravée” or carved stone of this unique estate is the passion of winemaker Philippe Guyonnet, who fell in love with Chenin and its potential here in the Vallée Coquette, just a stone’s throw from Vouvray’s Première Côte. With the aromatic intensity and flavorful complexity of the finest white Burgundy, the dry Chenin Blanc wines of Pierre Gravée are a delicious discovery. Practicing organic.

Domaine Vernay

Condrieu | France

The wines of Domaine Vernay are the true representation of the soul of Condrieu and the ultimate expression of the northern Rhône’s native white grape, Viognier. Winemaker Christine Vernay has led this family estate since 1996, as its third generation and modern visionary. One of France’s leading female winemakers, she also pioneered the estate’s production of red wines from choice parcels in Côte-Rôtie. Now with more than a quarter-century of experience behind her, Christine has welcomed her daughter, Emma, into the fields and cellar. Certified organic.

AZIENDA AGRICOLA PATRIZIA CENCIONI

This female-run estate benefits from strong winds that work to moderate the more Mediterranean heat of the high-altitude, northeast flank of Montalcino. One of the first female winemakers in Montalcino, Patrizia and her two daughters craft Sangiovese wines that are soulful and savory, with tangy licorice and black cherry fruit. TENUTA DI VALGIANO

Drive up into the verdant hills north of Lucca and you’ve entered a different Tuscany, one that seems less manicured, more wild. Sangiovese here partners with Merlot and Syrah, the legacy of Napoleonic troops who briefly called these vine-covered hills their home. MAISON FRÉDÉRIC MAGNIEN

Frédéric Magnien is a fifth-generation winemaker from Morey-Saint-Denis. As a hands-on négociant, he works closely with growers throughout the season, selecting mostly older-vine parcels cared for to his exacting standards. Wines are aged in a combination of amphora, clay eggs and older French oak barrels, a decision Frédéric believes allows for a purer expression of fruit and vineyard terroir. Certified organic.

BURGUNDY – CÔTE DE BEAUNEDOMAINE BAROLET-PERNOT

Saint-Romain is a Burgundy insider's secret, a village shaped like a sunny amphitheater and hidden behind a series of higher hills in the Côte de Beaune. Fourth-generation grower Romain Barolet-Pernot in a few short years has turned the wines of his family domaine into must-haves, with small-batch selections that perfectly reflect this village's stony energy and high-altitude freshness. A native of the village of Buxy, winemaker Maxime Cottenceau comes from a long line of growers, yet is the first to bottle wines under the family name. And what a start for a young talent, training under Rully native (and long-time North Berkeley partner), Vincent Dureuil-Janthial! For more than two decades, we have imported these limited-production, world-class Burgundy wines.

ABRUZZO

Paesani Liquori

Run by the same family since 1961, the Paesani fabbrica is perched on a hillside in the hamlet of Collevicchio, with the highest peak in the Apennine Mountains, the Gran Sasso d'Italia, as its backdrop and namesake. Antonio Paesani and his son Mirco painstakingly craft by hand their award-winning lineup of amari and other liqueurs in this mountainous setting in Italy's heartland of Abruzzo.

Scuppoz Liquori

Scuppoz (a word from archaic local dialect that describes the clinking of glasses during a toast) is one part laboratory and one part atelier, helmed by inspired distiller Adriano Cicconi, who today runs the company that was founded by his father, Benito, in 1982. Scuppoz has been recognized by Italy's influential SlowFood organization for its commitment to sustainable production methods, in addition to winning awards at spirits competitions around the world.

Casoni

Casoni was founded in 1814 and is considered one of Italy's oldest distilleries. For most of the 20th century, this family-founded fabbrica and distilleria was a standard bearer for Italian spirits, operating just outside Modena in Emilia-Romagna. Now headed by its seventh generation, Casoni is again at the forefront of the Italian craft spirits movement, with a re-energized vision of the family's classic range of aperitivi and amari.

The Jigger Society

Reggio Emilia is a foodie paradise: Parmigiano, balsamic vinegar, and Lambrusco are some of its signature products. The creative team here has tapped this regional wealth and applied it to the craft cocktail movement. Jigger Spiriti e Cucina, named the Best Cocktail Bar in Italy in 2016, sources local botanicals (and local wine) for their dynamic yet limited line of bespoke craft spirits.

Distillerie Moccia

Zabaglione is an airy, custard-like dessert which is made by whipping eggs with sugar and Marsala wine. In the late 1940s and inspired by this classic dessert, Luigi Moccia developed the recipe for Zabov using brandy instead of Marsala and packaged the resulting liqueur in a clear bottle to showcase its saturated egg-yolk color. Zabov remains both the heart and soul of Moccia and one of the most iconic liqueur brands in Italy.

Ginrosa L’Aperitivo

Entrepreneur Annunciata Bournè took over operations of a wine shop on Milan’s Piazza San Babilà in the 1880s, a time when unaccompanied women were not allowed into bars such as the popular Caffè Campari. For her place – called Ginrosa American Bar – Bournè thus made a rule that unaccompanied men were not allowed! She also invented a new aperitivo for her female clientele with a pink (rosa) hue and a more delicately balanced bitterness than is found in Campari. (And fun fact: both brands’ namesake bars are still thriving today in the heart of Milan.)

OSCAR.697

Our selections from Oscar.697 qualify as “Vermouth Storico di Torino” under current IGP EU regulations, as they are produced in Calamandrana, a tiny village in the Asti province of Piedmont, where many famous Turin vermouths originated. Nevertheless, these products do not carry the IGP designation, in large part because Oscar.697 takes some inspired liberties with tradition in search of new sensations.

Baldoria Vermouth

The Italian name Baldoria, which translates to “conviviality,” captures the joy in sharing this stimulating craft spirit as well as the creativity and dedication of vermouth’s native producers in Italy. Setting out to “bring vermouth into the 21st century,” master distillers Piero Nuvoloni-Bonnet and Enrico Giordana have teamed up with Ernest Spirits’ founders Daniel Schmidt and Dotan Shalev to create a vibrant collection of vermouths based on native botanicals.

Vetz

Vetz is a modern take on the classic Italian aperitivo spirit, crafted in the rolling hills of Piedmont using only natural botanicals. In northern Italian dialect, Vetz means “buddy,” and what a true friend this lower-alcohol, delicately bitter aperitivo is for professionals and home bartenders alike! A new, all-natural, low-ABV spritz option.

TRENTINODistilleria Marzadro

Founded in 1949 in the village of Nogaredo, in the southern part of Trentino near Lake Garda, Marzadro was the brainchild of Sabina Marzadro and her brother, Attilio. Today Marzadro is one of Italy’s leading craft spirits producers. The distillery’s centerpiece is a battery of eight copper stills, which are arranged in a circle under a skylit dome. Over in the dramatic, vaulted bottaia (barrel room), rows of barrels hold grappas and other spirits in various stages of evolution.

TUSCANYLevante Spirits

Levante Spirits is a small yet dynamic spirits group based in Ponsacco, Tuscany. Creators Enzo Brini and Fabio Mascaretti set out to create liqueurs and distillates that represent the soul of Tuscany. Their gins are Mediterranean-inspired, evoking the scents of the wild macchia or scrub-brush of the coast. Their Old Sailor Coffee Liqueur combines tradition with a modern sensibility for a very delicious concoction.

VENETODistilleria Schiavo

Not far from the iconic town of Bassano del Grappa, the village of Costabissara was where entrepreneur Domenico Schiavo, in the early 1800s, traveled from farm to farm with a mobile still, selling the resulting spirits to regional inns and wineries. Today fifth-generation Marco Schiavo tends the family’s copper stills and produces a range of grappa spirits, in addition to inspired bitters and liqueurs.

Château de Pibarnon

Winemaker Eric de Saint-Victor’s parents, when they purchased Pibarnon so many decades ago, wanted to showcase the power of Mourvèdre not just in wine, but also in eau de vie. Thus began the family’s micro-production of a long-aged distillate crafted from the pomace of their Bandol Rouge wines, a rare and cherished Vieux Marc de Bandol. When it emerges from its 25-year slumber, this pale amber-colored potion is rich in peppery nuance and the earthy herbal garrigue that grows wild over so much of France’s southern coast.

CHAMPAGNE

Cidre Bouvy

Victor Bouvy is the fourth generation to run his family’s farm in Mont-Sur-Corville in the Vallée de l’Ardre in the heart of Champagne, tucked between the Montagne de Reims and the Marne Valley. This dry, refreshing cider is the product of eight different apple varieties, grown on the limestone- and clay-rich soils in the heart of Champagne. Fermentation happens on indigenous yeasts in bottle and the cider is never pasteurized; flavors range delightfully from yellow apple to marigolds to crushed stones and sweet spice.
