

DOMAINE DE LA POUSSE D'OR

Corton-Clos du Roi Grand Cru

Domaine de la Pousse d'Or has for decades been the collector's choice for expressive, memorable wines from Burgundy's most hallowed terroirs, and is unquestionably one of the Burgundian elite. The history of Pousse d'Or in Volnay underscores its influence throughout the ages. In 1855, the winery was part of a larger domaine that included Romanée-Conti and Clos de Tart. In 1997, Patrick Landanger purchased the winery and its vineyards. In the mid-2000s, Landanger added an impressive collection of Côte de Nuits vineyards (from Domaine Moine-Hudelot) to his portfolio. The estate's dedication to sustainable viticulture, following biodynamic principles, is serious. Vineyards are cared for without the use of pesticides or herbicides and are regularly plowed.

WINERY: Domaine de la Pousse d'Or

WINEMAKER: Benoît Landanger

ESTABLISHED: 1954

REGION: FRANCE • Burgundy • Volnay

APPELLATION: Corton-Clos du Roi AOC

BLEND: 100% Pinot Noir

VINEYARDS: Estate vines total three acres in this east-facing grand cru. Soils are a classic Burgundian mix of limestone and clay.

AGE OF VINES: 30-40 years

WINEMAKING: Hand-harvested. Destemmed. Cold maceration for one week; fermented on indigenous yeasts in tank. Aged in French oak barrel (30% new) for 18 months. Minimal sulfur addition. Moved via gravity; bottled unfiltered and unfiltered.

TASTING IMPRESSIONS: Aromas of black cherry, licorice, warm baking spices, some purple flowers. Sweet fruit surrounds a structured core; fine-grained tannins.

PAIRING SUGGESTIONS: Flank steak with pepper; oeufs en meurette (poached eggs in red Burgundy); aged French cheese

NORTH BERKELEY IMPORTS

northberkeleyimports.com