DOMAINE BAROLET-PERNOT

Burgundy – Côte de Beaune | France

Saint-Romain is a Burgundy insider's secret, a village shaped like a sunny amphitheater that is hidden behind a series of higher hills in the Côte de Beaune. Fourth-generation grower Romain Barolet-Pernot in a few short years has turned his family domaine into an up-and-coming star. Bringing back their best grapes (previously sold to Olivier Leflaive) and taking a more organic approach in the fields, Romain has transformed these small-batch wines to reflect his home village's stony energy and high-altitude freshness like a polished mirror. Practicing organic.

DOMAINE ERIC BOIGELOT

Burgundy – Côte de Beaune | France

Winemaker Charles Boigelot is the fourth generation of his family to champion the terroir treasures of the village Monthélie. Nestled stylistically between the ruddy elegance of Volnay and the nutty intensity of Meursault, Monthélie just may be the Côte de Beaune's best-kept secret, a source of mineral-rich whites and soulful reds in equal measure. With some 22 acres of excellent vineyards in Monthélie, Meursault and Volnay, Charles—who took over winemaking duties from his father Eric in 2022—is a young talent already making serious waves in greater Burgundy. Practicing sustainable farming.

FIEF NOIR

Loire Valley | France

The team of Dominique Sirot and Alexis Soulas is unquestionably one of the more dynamic, talented duos in the Loire Valley. The world's best Chenin Blanc wines come from Anjou "noir," a broad vein of black, schist/slate soils, made famous by the grand wines of Savennières. Fief Noir benefits from these same soils, terroir riches that give these wines both power and finesse. Dominique and Alexis worked in sun-rich Corsica before moving north to the Loire. Enologists by training, both men have further developed their knowledge by working with some of the leading thinkers in the wine world (Denis Dubourdieu, Marco Simonit). They seek to bring "the flow of sap right into the glass," says Dominique—and they succeed. Certified organic.

MAISON LOUIS PICAMELOT

Burgundy – Côte Chalonnaise | France

One of the most historic Crémant houses in Burgundy, Maison Louis Picamelot is the single reference in the region for character-driven and complex Crémant de Bourgogne wines. This family-run winery has long focused on wines of terroir, sourcing only the finest grapes, harvested by hand, from top vineyards and championing single-vineyard (as well as vintage) bottlings. The winery's cellars in Rully are located nearly 500 feet underground, dug into pure rock and ideal for the slow, gradual aging of their many impressive cuvees. Practicing sustainable farming.

ITALY

ALTO ADIGE

AZIENDA AGRICOLA GARLIDER

Winemaker Christian Kerschbaumer and his wife, Veronika, care for their 12 acres of south-facing vineyards organically. Here white grapes such as Müller-Thurgau and Pinot Grigio express the honest mountain freshness for which Alto Adige is best known. The family also tends some of the only Pinot Nero (Blauburgunder) vines in the Isarco valley. Certified organic.

BASILICATA

AZIENDA AGRICOLA MUSTO CARMELITANO

Elisabetta Musto Carmelitano and her brother, Luigi, are the driving force behind this family estate in Maschito, a town located in the heart of the Vulture region. Many of the family's oldest Aglianico vines were planted by the siblings' great-grandfather, more than 100 years ago. Elisabetta's wines effortlessly capture Aglianico's natural elegance and beauty. Certified organic.

CAMPANIA

CANTINE OLIVELLA

Ciro Giordano and winemaker Andrea Cozzolino started their project in 2004, to show the potential of ancient vineyards on the slopes of active volcano Vesuvius, a region with thousands of years of viticultural history. All vines are "piedi franco," or ungrafted rootstock; rare white grapes like Catalanesca are grown here and nowhere else in Italy. Certified organic.

FRIULICANTINA OSTRO

Ostro is the name of a south wind that travels from the Adriatic Sea, bringing with it a fresh, sea-salty essence that is a boon for white grapes in Friuli. An exclusive selection to North Berkeley Imports, Ostro is refined, vinous Prosecco sourced from the original homeland of the Glera grape. Practicing sustainable farming.

AZIENDA AGRICOLA SKERLJ

Carso, or the Karst region, is a limestone plateau that reaches from northeastern Italy into southwestern Slovenia. In this breathtaking yet rustic corner of Italy, vines share space with wild forest and family farms like Skerlj (scare-lee). They produce fantastic "orange" wines with uncommon finesse. Skerlj was named to Wine & Spirits Magazine's Top 100 Winery list in 2017. Certified organic.

AZIENDA AGRICOLA VILLA VARDA

To the northeast, the towering Alps; to the south, the placid Adriatic Sea. The Maccan family couldn't have found a more charmed spot to cultivate Friuli's native grape varieties. Here along the banks of the Livenza river, the classic stones of Grave mix with limestone and clay, for wines with more body and aromatic intensity. Practicing sustainable farming.

	2021	Friuli Pinot Grigio	$132

AZIENDA AGRICOLA ZUCCOLO

Friuli is the true home of the Glera grape and therefore the source of the most aromatic, vinous, elegant and true Prosecco wines. The Fantinel family cares for high-altitude hillside vineyards in the shadows of the towering Dolomites, harvesting all fruit by hand. Practicing sustainable farming.

AZIENDA AGRICOLA TIZIANO MAZZONI

Inspired by his love for Barolo, Tiziano Mazzoni in 1999 returned to his family's Ghemme roots to purchase four acres of vineyard land, in order to remind the world that the Langhe wasn't the only source of world-class Nebbiolo in Piedmont. This historic micro-region in the shadow of the Alps, thanks to pioneers like Mazzoni, is now returning to its former status with wines that showcase Nebbiolo (here called Spanna) at its most soulful. AZIENDA AGRICOLA SAN CARLO

Fulvio Marcucci purchased 25 acres of woodland in the 1960s on the southwest side of Montalcino to plant vines. This family estate today remains one of Brunello's smallest, with just seven acres planted to Sangiovese. Fulvio's granddaughter, Gemma, now crafts the family's rising-star, yet very limited, Brunello wines. Practicing organic.

TENUTA DI VALGIANO

Drive up into the verdant hills north of Lucca and you've entered a different Tuscany, one that seems less manicured, more wild. At Tenuta di Valgiano, biodynamics is the rhythm to which everything moves: the vineyards and the olive trees, the bees and the chickens. Sangiovese here delivers a Bacchic pleasure, profound and pure. Tenuta di Valgiano has won Italy's coveted "Tre Bicchieri" (three glasses) award for its Colline Lucchesi Rosso more than a dozen times in recent years. Certified organic | Certified biodynamic.

BEAUJOLAIS

DOMAINE DES BRAVES

Winemakers Clément Deglaine and Victor Gentien met in school in Lyon, sharing a strong passion for everything Beaujolais. Their desire to craft Gamay wines became a reality when the Cinquin family of Domaine des Braves—our partners for more than 30 years—decided it was time to retire. A majority of the soil in Le Bois d'Oingt is limestone, similar to the "mother rock" of the Côte d'Or. BURGUNDY – CÔTE DE BEAUNE

NEW PRODUCER! DOMAINE BAROLET-PERNOT

Saint-Romain is a Burgundy insider's secret, a village shaped like a sunny amphitheater and hidden behind a series of higher hills in the Côte de Beaune. Fourth-generation grower Romain Barolet-Pernot in a few short years has turned the wines of his family domaine into must-haves, with small-batch selections that perfectly reflect this village's stony energy and high-altitude freshness. DOMAINE BOYER-MARTENOT

Vincent Boyer is a hands-in-the soil grower in an appellation where many wineries just coast on Meursault's reputation. While most winemakers blend, Vincent bottles his many exceptional villages-level vineyards separately. Vincent now ages his wines in a combination of older foudre and egg-shaped cement casks, for wines that are even more expressive of their underlying terroir. Practicing sustainable farming.

Not every estate can claim the king of France as a previous vineyard owner; fewer still can count seven grand crus and three monopole vineyards under one roof. Winemaker Benoit Landanger in recent years has guided the estate's transition to biodynamic viticulture and a cellar that works completely via gravity. Pousse d'Or was named to Wine & Spirits Magazine's Top 100 Winery list in 2020 and 2018. Certified biodynamic.

BURGUNDY - CÔTE CHALONNAISE

DOMAINE COTTENCEAU

A native of the village of Buxy, winemaker Maxime Cottenceau comes from a long line of growers, yet is the first to bottle wines under the family name. And what a start for a young talent, training under Rully native (and long-time North Berkeley partner), Vincent Dureuil-Janthial! Maxime tends just a few acres of vines naturally, following the lunar calendar. Practicing organic.

DOMAINE DUREUIL-JANTHIAL

Named France's top winemaker in 2019, Vincent Dureuil has always been a visionary, pushing the limits of what winemaking in Rully was "expected" to be. He has long been the finest talent in the Côte Chalonnaise; his natural touch with both red and white Burgundy is unmatched. For more than two decades, we have imported these limited-production, world-class Burgundy wines. Certified organic | Practicing biodynamic.

NEW PRODUCER! LOUIS PICAMELOT

One of the most historic sparkling wine producers in Burgundy, Louis Picamelot is the single reference for character-driven and complex Crémant de Bourgogne wines. This family-run winery has long focused on wines of terroir, sourcing only the finest grapes, harvested by hand, from top vineyards and championing single-vineyard (as well as vintage) bottlings. Practicing sustainable farming.

CHÂTEAU DE MATTES-SABRAN

The size and spread of Mattes-Sabran's lands are a legacy of its ancient role as the seat of the duke of Narbonne. Many vineyards are peppered with galets roulés, the large granite stones typical of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. This is serious terroir for one seriously delicious, value-priced red blend.
