

DOMAINE DES CHASSEIGNES

Sancerre Rouge

Aurore Dezat is the fourth generation of her winemaking family to tend the world-class vineyards of Sancerre in Sury-en-Vaux. Joined by her winemaking husband David Girard (who also heads up a separate Sancerre winery with his brother Anthony), this dynamic partnership maintains some 23 acres of prime terroir — the region’s chalky “terres blanches,” the stony “caillottes” and the flint-rich “silex.” Guided by the character of each type of soil, Domaine des Chasseignes crafts stunning single-vineyard wines that act like a mirror, reflecting honestly the pure aromas and intense flavors of the best of Sancerre. The couple’s uncompromising dedication to organic farming is just one more reason these wines are as expressive and pure as they are.
